

This qualification reflects the role of support workers who complete specialised tasks and functions in aged services; either in residential, home or community-based environments. Workers will take responsibility for their own outputs within defined organisation guidelines and maintain quality service through the development, facilitation and review of individualised service planning and delivery. Workers may be required to demonstrate leadership and have limited responsibility for the organization and the quantity and quality of outputs of others within limited parameters.

Relevant Job Roles

- Community program coordinator
- Support worker (Community services)
- Personal care worker
- Care team leader
- Residential care worker
- Care supervisor
- Residential care officer

FACE-TO-FACE SCHEDULE

This course is scheduled as:

- 74 weeks | 20 hours per week | 6 terms | 10 week terms (plus term breaks)

Homework, reading and assessment tasks are completed between each workshop. We recommend that learners set aside between 5–7 hours per week for homework, reading and assessment tasks.

PATHWAYS

Students can enter directly into the Certificate IV in Ageing Support (CHC43015) without prior qualifications. Students may choose to enrol into a double qualification with Certificate III in Individual Support (CHC33015) or Diploma of Community Services (CHC52015).

Applicants who have successfully completed Certificate III in Individual Support (ageing specialisation) may be eligible for up to 9 credits towards the Certificate IV in Ageing Support.
